MJC has welcomed Maulana Dr. Badrul Hasan Qasmi, the Indian Islamic scholar, jurist and writer known for his contributions to Arabic and Urdu scholarship.

The MJC has welcomed Maulana Dr. Badrul Hasan Qasmi, the Indian Islamic scholar, jurist and writer known for his contributions to Arabic and Urdu scholarship.

Born on 8 March 1955, Maulana Qasmi began his career at Darul Uloom Deoband, where he taught Islamic sciences and edited the Arabic fortnightly Al-Daie from 1976 to 1982. He later joined Kuwait's Ministry of Awqaf and Islamic Affairs as a researcher and chaired the committee that reviewed the Urdu edition of the Encyclopedia of Islamic Jurisprudence.

A founding member of the Islamic Fiqh Academy (India), he later served as its vice president and has represented the Academy at several international conferences. His writings in Arabic and Urdu explore Islamic jurisprudence, maqāṣid al-sharīʿah (the objectives of Islamic law), Qurʾānic exegesis and modern intellectual issues. #MJC
